

Communication between the Audit Committee and Certified Public Accountants

1. Policy on the Communication between the Audit Committee and Certified Public Accountants:

The audit committee of the Company is composed of all independent directors. In order to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of its operations and strengthen the interaction with the certified public accountant (CPA), the audit committee has formulated the Communication Procedures between the Audit Committee and Certified Public Accountants to monitor if the Company's financial statements are appropriately expressed and the independence and performance of the CPAs.

The communication items regulated by the Communication Procedures between the Audit Committee and the Certified Public Accountants are as follows:

- (1) When planning the audit -- The CPAs shall be present at the pre-audit meeting and ask if there are additional audit instructions, and shall also inform the independent directors of the audit plan.
- (2) During the audit -- If any significant abnormality is found, it shall be immediately reported to the members of the audit committee.
- (3) Before completing the audit report -- The CPAs shall report to the members of the audit committee at the post-audit meeting.
- (4) The CPAs shall maintain close contact with the chairman or convener of this committee at any time to inform about new special regulations, products and businesses of the industry.
- (5) The CPAs shall meet with the members of the audit committee individually on a regular basis or when necessary.

According to the aforementioned Procedures, the independent directors of the Company and the CPAs meet at least four times a year. The CPAs report to the independent directors on the financial status and internal control checks of the major subsidiaries of this financial holding group and communicates fully whether there are any significant adjustments to the entries or legal amendments that have significant impact on this financial holding group.
